NEED TO KNOW PARTICIPANTS:

Zippy Duvall, American Farm Bureau President: Zippy Duvall was elected president of the American Farm Bureau Federation in 2016 at the group's annual convention in Orlando, Florida. Previously, Duvall had served about 10 years as president of the Georgia Farm Bureau based in Macon. Zippy Duvall, a boiler, cattle and hay farmer from Greensboro, becomes the 12th national president during the Federations nearly 98-year history. The previous president had served the past 16 years.

Tom Buchanan, Oklahoma Farm Bureau President: Jackson County farmer-rancher Tom Buchanan was elected president of Oklahoma Farm Bureau Nov. 16, 2013, at the organization's 72nd annual meeting in Norman. Buchanan runs a cow-calf operation and grows wheat and irrigated cotton on his farm near Altus. He also raises cattle in a family partnership with his brother and sister. Buchanan serves as the general manager of the Lugert-Altus Irrigation District and represents irrigation water use interests as vice chairman of the Oklahoma Water Resources Board. Buchanan has been a Farm Bureau member since he was 16 years old and has been active on the Jackson County board for more than 20 years, representing the county on numerous state Farm Bureau committees. He also served on the Oklahoma Farm Bureau Board of Directors for six years representing District 2.
